EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Section 1(1) of the Welsh Tax Acts etc. (Power to Modify) Act 2022 (“the 2022 Act”) provides that the Welsh Ministers may make regulations which modify certain legislation (defined in section 1(3) of the 2022 Act) and regulations made under that legislation, if the Welsh Ministers consider that the modifications are necessary or appropriate for or in connection with the purposes set out in section 1(1)(a) to (d) of the 2022 Act, subject to the restrictions in sections 1(2) and 2 of the 2022 Act.

Section 7(1) of the 2022 Act provides that the power under section 1 of the 2022 Act expires at the end of the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which the 2022 Act came into force. The 2022 Act came into force on 9 September 2022 and the power expires on 8 September 2027.

Section 7(2) of the 2022 Act provides that the Welsh Ministers may by regulations provide that the power under section 1 of the 2022 Act is not to expire on that date (section 7(2)(a)) but is to continue in force for a further period, specified in regulations, ending no later than 30 April 2031 (section 7(2)(b)).

Section 7(5)(a) of the 2022 Act provides that a draft of a statutory instrument containing regulations under section 7(2) of the 2022 Act may not be laid before Senedd Cymru before the conclusions of the review under section 6 of the 2022 Act have been published. Section 6(1) of the 2022 Act provides that the Welsh Ministers must review the operation and effect of the 2022 Act and publish the conclusions of the review before the end of the period of 4 years beginning with the day on which the 2022 Act came into force.

The 2022 Act came into force on 9 September 2022 and so the conclusions of the review must be published before 8 September 2026.

The conclusions of the review were published on 13 February 2026.

Section 7(5)(b) of the 2022 Act provides that a draft of a statutory instrument containing regulations under section 7(2) of the 2022 Act may not be approved by a resolution of Senedd Cymru after 8 September 2027.

Regulation 2 of these Regulations provides that the regulation-making power under section 1 of the 2022 Act is not to expire on 8 September 2027 but is to continue in force for a further period beginning with 9 September 2027 and ending with 30 April 2031.

The Welsh Ministers' Code of Practice on the carrying out of Regulatory Impact Assessments was considered in relation to these Regulations. As a result, a regulatory impact assessment has been prepared as to the likely costs and benefits of complying with these Regulations.
